

Table of Contents

Foreword	5
Chapter One: The Process of Service-Learning	7
Three Key Principles: Academic Integrity, Apprentice Citizenship, Student Ownership
A Framework for KIDS Projects
The Multiple Benefits of the KIDS Model
Sidebar: Benefits of Youth-Adult Partnerships
Some Examples of Service-Learning Projects Implemented by Students
Chapter Two: Working Together	17
Students Identifying Needs
Sidebar: Guided Discovery with Students
Starting a Partnership: First Steps
Sidebar: Questions to Ask in Assessing Community Needs
Sidebar: Organizational Assessment: Are You Ready for Service-Learning?
Finding a Good Classroom Match: Meeting with School Administrators and Teachers
Sidebar: What to Discuss in Early Conversations
Framework Tips and Tools
Project Planning: Working with Students and Teachers
Maintaining Momentum
Trouble-shooting
Chapter Three: Sustaining a Service-Learning Partnership: Lessons from Community Partners Increasing Organizational Commitment to Service-Learning	27
Increasing Organizational Commitment
Staffing
Sidebar: LifeFlight of Maine
Funding
Professional Development
Sidebar: Mount Desert Island Water Quality Coalition
Youth on Boards
Sidebar: Youth on Boards: Factors to Consider
Appendices	31
Appendix A.....	Sample Issue List from a Community Fair
Appendix B.....	Further Service-Learning Resources
Appendix C.....	A Continuum Model for Understanding Youth Partnership
Appendix D.....	A Window into My Organization
Appendix E.....	KIDS Framework Planning Sheet
Appendix F.....	Sample Contract for Community Partners and Teachers
Appendix G.....	Researching Solutions
Appendix H.....	Icebreakers
Appendix I.....	Reflection Ideas for Multiple Intelligences
Appendix J.....	Media and Community Outreach
Appendix K.....	Water Cycle Rubric